At my reunion group meeting on January 13th, Butch Farley asked a question and we went around the table discussing the answer. My reunion group routinely has between 8-10 guys that show up. We had a wonderful discussion of his question which was: What event or talk do you remember from your Emmaus walk that has stuck with you since your walk?

The discussion was so good in our reunion group that I decided to use it as a question to discuss at the January Gathering during the small group time. People seemed to be in wonderful conversations remembering parts of their walk that still are affecting their walk with God.

It is hard to pick just one thing because there are many memorable things that happen during the Walk to Emmaus but I picked two.

First, I remember the Priority talk. The speaker talked about his work/life balance being out of whack, and at the time, I was also struggling with spending more time at work than I should have. That talk has stuck with me. So much so, that when I get really busy at work, I remember that I do have the power to make my own priorities and that I need reorder my priorities to bring some sanity to my work/life balance.

The second thing that has stuck with me from my walk was what I left at the cross during Dying Moments. I realized what was getting in between God and myself in having a better relationship with Him was my excuses. I had a lot of them and most of them were lame excuses. I still do a self-check on my excuses – although I left many of them at the cross that day – one can (and I have) make up new excuses that keep me away from God.

At the Orientation Meeting, Butch asked the following question: What, from your Emmaus walk, affected your relationship with God. We will be using that one during small group time at the February Gathering.

De Colores,

River Club Church, FE-70, Table of Peter
Community Lay Director

Let me introduce myself. My name is Brad Phillips and at the January Emmaus board meeting I was elected the Community Spiritual Director. Let me also introduce myself in the Emmaus way. I worship at Wilderness Community Church. I walked on Tidewater #42 and sat at the table of Heaven Seekers. (clap).

I am a retired United Methodist minister as of last June having served at Peace United Methodist Church the previous 3 years. Ever since my walk in 1998, I have been active in the Emmaus movement in three communities. Tidewater, of course, where I teamed on five walks. Loudon Valley, where I teamed on five walks and was the Community Spiritual Director in that Community. Since becoming a part of the Fredericksburg community I have teamed on FE 101.

In all the years I have teamed and have been involved in the communities I have seen lives changed and transformed. Emmaus, of course, is not the only way that one can deepen their relationship with Christ, but certainly is a powerful way.

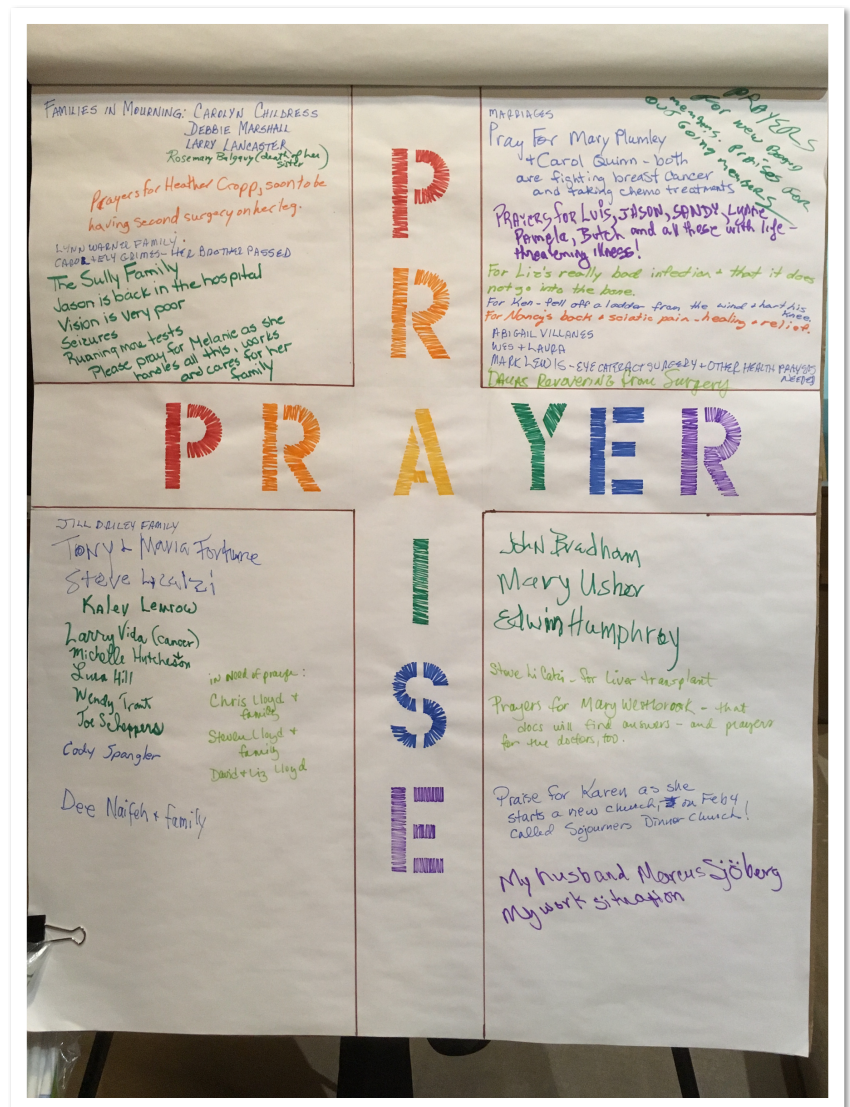

We live in very difficult times right now. The Christian faith is constantly being challenged and at times pushed aside for other things that seem so much more fulfilling and exciting. There is so much rhetoric out there that is very negative and damaging. We need Jesus Christ and his love and example more than ever to help overcome this. Emmaus' weekends can help so much in that.

I look forward to this year and in the years to come to be a part of a Christian faith group that loves people and desires to help people grow and deal with the world today through Jesus Christ.

DeColores,

Brad
