This summer was exciting because of our first ever Face to Face Encounter which was held in August at Fredericksburg UMC. The pilgrim's testimonies at closing showed me that the experience was awesome for them and that they grew closer to Christ because of the Encounter. I know from talking to the team members that it wasn't just the pilgrims, that they also were extremely blessed by the experience.

It has also been exciting to me to see the teams for FE-111 and FE-112 come together and start the teaming process for the Emmaus Walks that are scheduled for November 1-4 for the men and November 15-18 for the women. One of the joys of being the Community Lay Director is to work with and encourage the Weekend Lay Directors in preparing their teams for the walks they are leading.

Speaking of the teams forming, that also means we need pilgrims for those two walks so if you have a person that you think would benefit from a Walk to Emmaus – get that person an application to be on the Fall walks and get it sent in.

We also need people to fill in slots for the 72 hour prayer vigil. Those links are here and here.

So for now, we wait. We wait for the upcoming weekends and we wait for the pilgrims that are to come. Please be in prayer for the teams that are now working toward the weekend and be in prayer for the pilgrims that are coming to experience the Walk to Emmaus.

This little light of mine

If you are attending candlelight for the fall women's walk in November please bring with you a flameless candle. We will not be using or furnishing live candles. This change is to allow every pilgrim to enjoy the candlelight experience and some small changes for that part of the weekend

It is hard to believe that it has come and gone. What am I talking about? I am talking about Face to Face Encounter # 1.

What a wonderful experience it was. It was an Encounter with 24 wonderful pilgrims who over and over again saw the face of Jesus in so many ways. Hearts and lives were touched, and these pilgrims want to experience and commit themselves to a wonderful Next Day (4th Day).

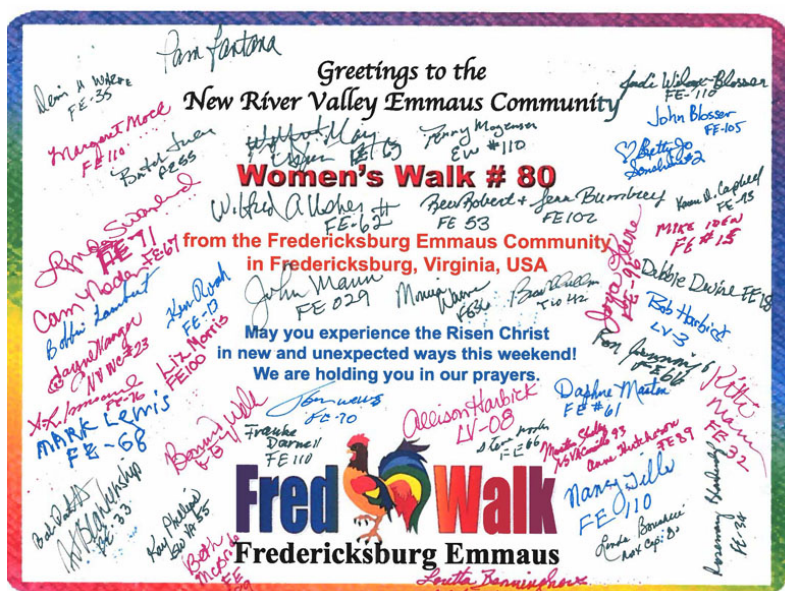

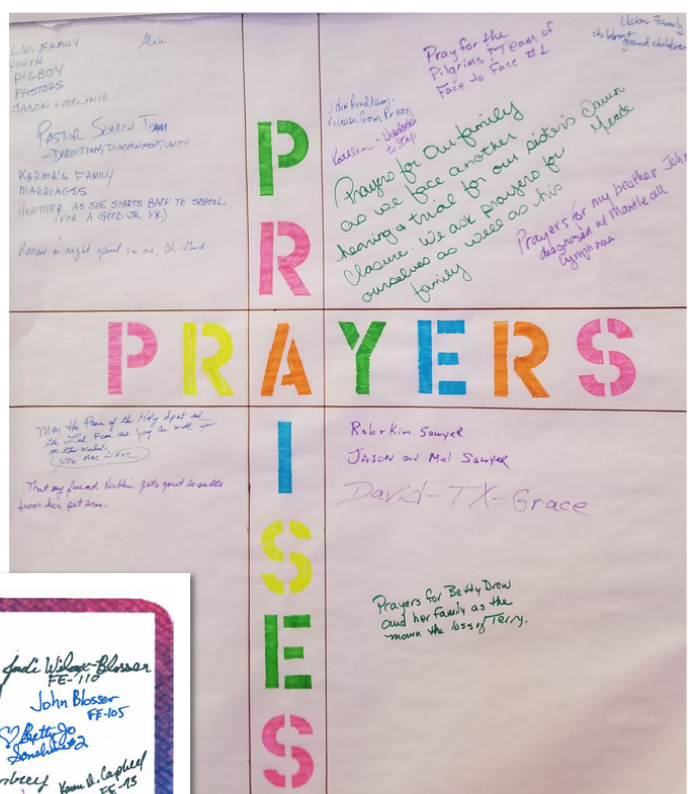

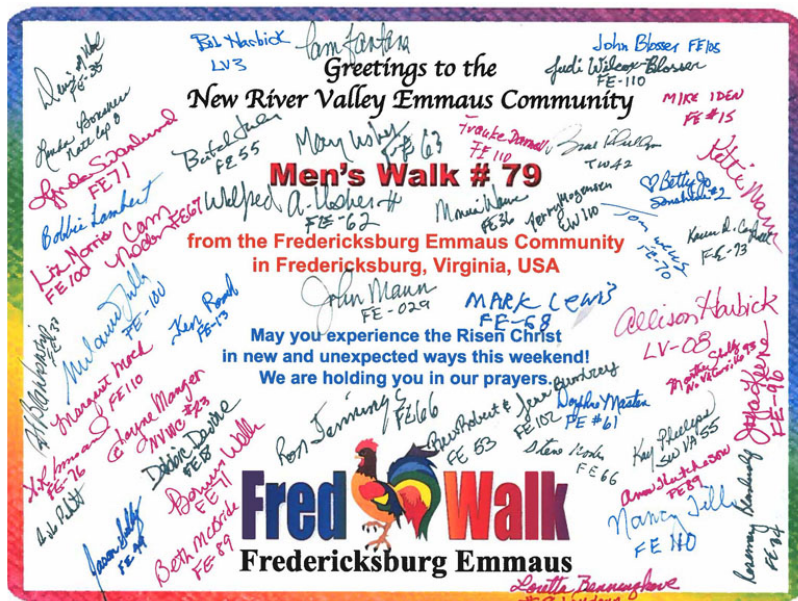

Face to Face Encounters of the future will be a wonderful way for older Christians to have the "Emmaus experience" without the need to go away. The pilgrims on Encounter #1 were faithful in returning each day and they came away deeply touched and changed. The same is true for the team. We were blessed as much if not more in our experience with these pilgrims. I am looking forward to when we get Face to Face #2 going because I believe we will have many new pilgrims who will want to come. This ministry is a wonderful addition to our Emmaus walks. We will be able to reach more pilgrims who might not ever come to see the face of Jesus without Face to Face. God is good!

De Colores.
